LODGINGS

We stayed in Jerusalem across from Damascus Gate. There are two primary sides, Old Jerusalem, which is Palestinian / Arab, with a “Christian” quarter, and New Jerusalem, which is primarily secular & religious Jews.

MORNING DEVOTIONS

Each morning, we would sing songs and do short devotionals. We would meet and have others joining our devotions. Max is currently on the front lines of the war in the Ukraine

DAMASCUS GATE

From day one, the Damascus Gate was a favorite spot where we ministered to the Muslim quarter of Jerusalem sharing the gospel primarily to Muslim Arabs, but of course plenty of tourists heard as well. It was not without its troubles, but predominantly a good spot to preach.

PLACE OF THE SKULL

This is one of two places believed to be where Jesus was crucified and buried.

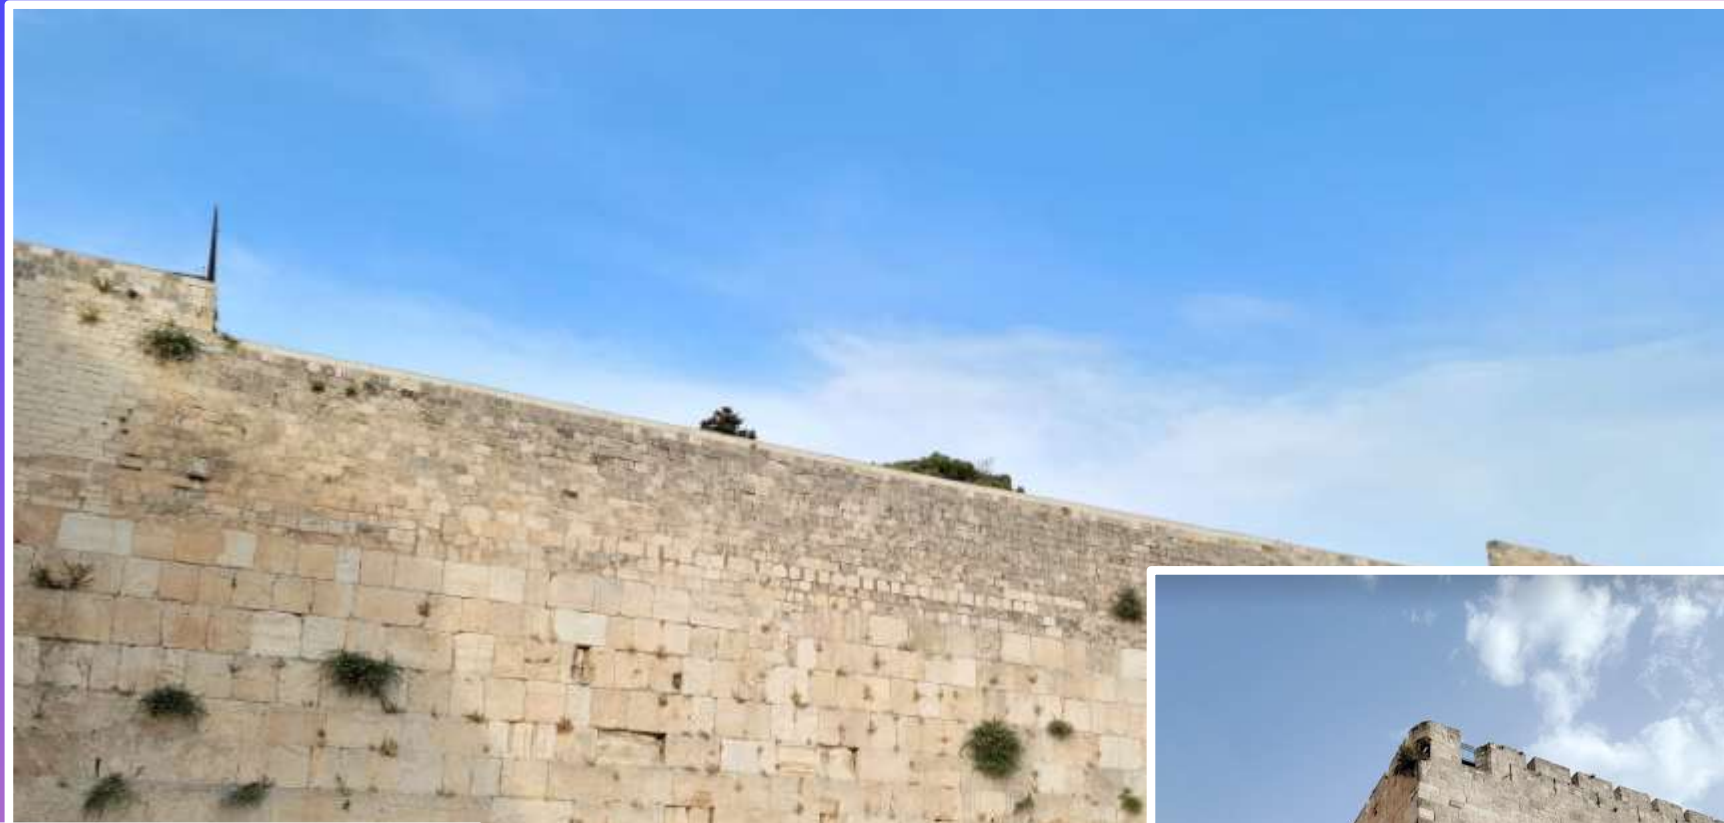

CHURCH OF THE HOLY SEPULCHER

This is the second of place believed to be where Jesus was crucified and buried.

JEW S INTERACT

A famous Rabbi was coming into town and the guys had an amazing evening going through the scriptures with a few Jews.

JEWES INTERACT

On the roof / upper room, this young Jewish man, had a 30+ min gospel conversation discussion. Then the people listening in had a side gospel conversation.

ZION SQUARE

New Jerusalem, which is primarily secular and religious Jews is where the reality of the hatred of Jesus Christ is clearly exposed.

EVENING PREACHING

Jerusalem always has Jews going to the wailing wall and have to pass through this spot.

BETHLEHEM

This is the oldest church to still hold old services in it and it's said to have been built over the spot where Jesus was born. It is sad to see the amount of idolatry these places embrace.

SEA OF GALILEE

Traveled to Capernaum and Preached in Tiberius.
Gospel preaching even on the boat.

DEAD SEA

Got to take a dip in the Dead Sea and see the place the Dead sea scrolls were found

RUINS OF JERICHO

The Wilderness and Jericho ruins

Got to preach at many of the same gates the Prophets of old did.

SUNDAY SERVICE

Local Church we would send people to if they were interested. There were a few visitors from around the world.
